The disclosure should be carefully reviewed to ensure that any and all grammatical, idiomatic, and spelling or other minor errors are corrected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Zheng et al. (US 6,779,765). The reference discloses, inter alia, an attachment apparatus 10 for coupling a first device 12 to a second device (not shown) having a cradle 18 with sidewalls with a major surface 42 wherein the major surface has a hole 48 for coupling with a suction cup 20. The suction cup has a suction pad 22, a release pad 52a and a knob 50 with depressions attached to the suction pad. See figure 2.
